RODIS

Presenting
THE COURSE OF

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1965

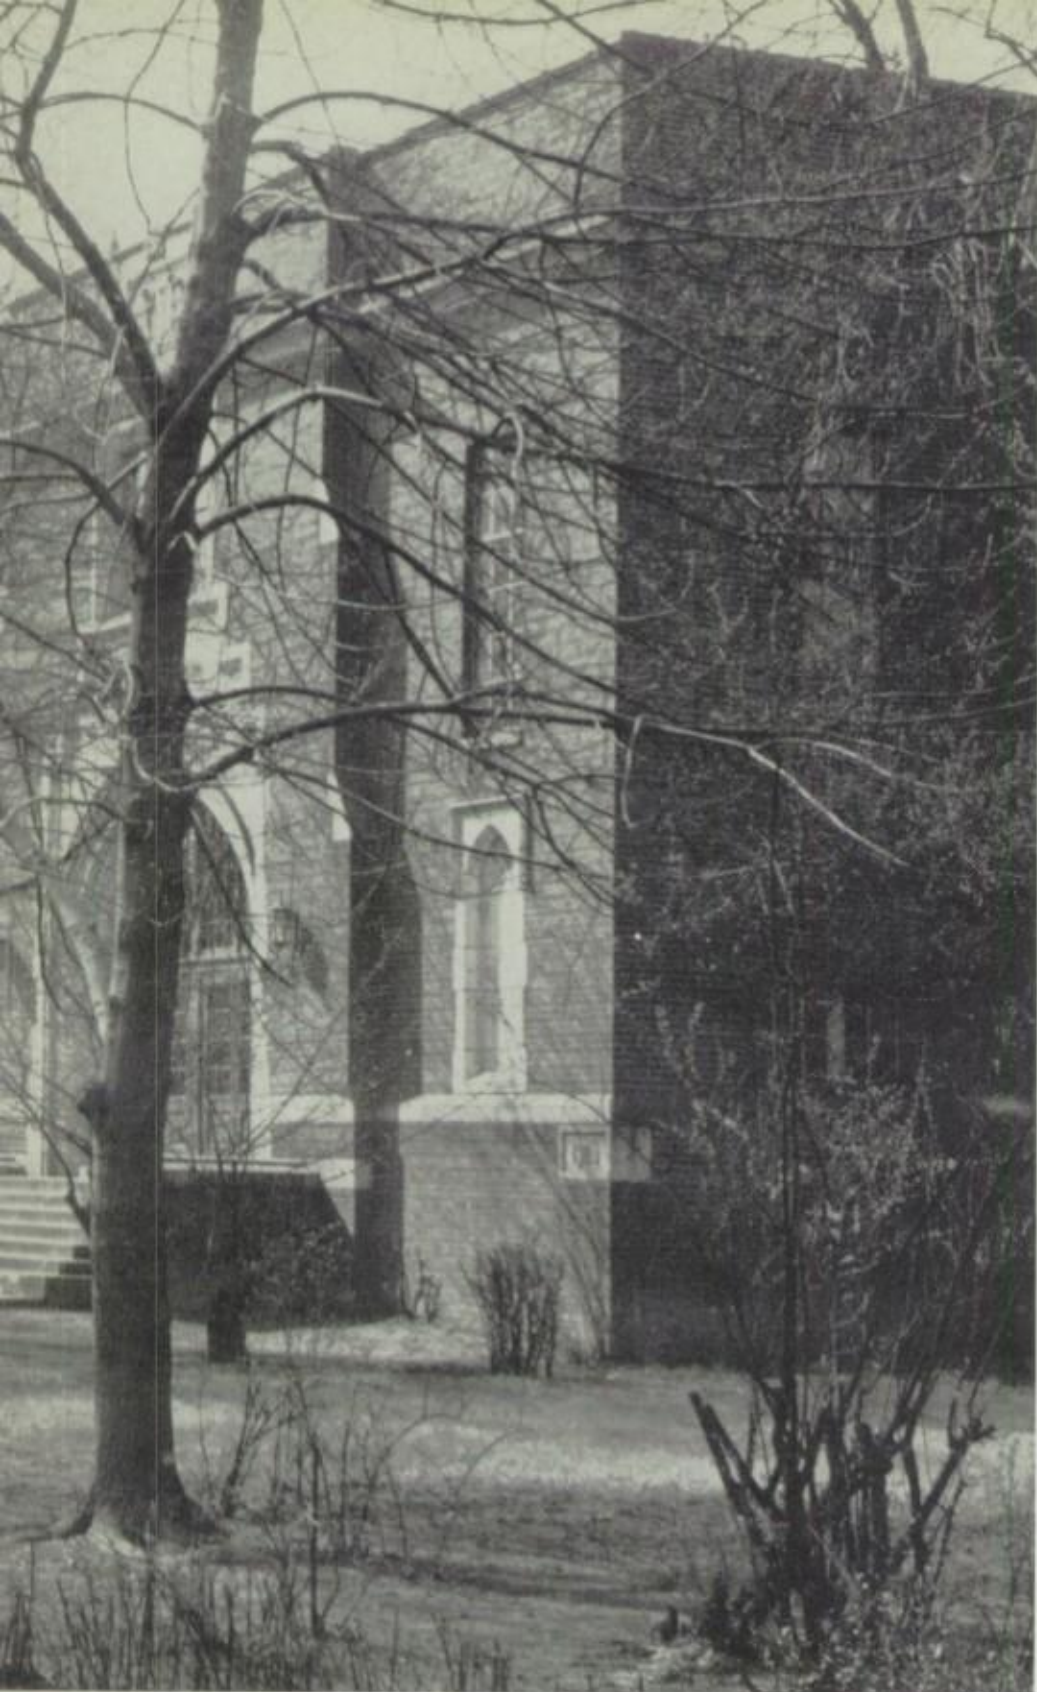

This edition of the Rodis has been published with but one objective—to capture a year between its covers. While we know that life at Lincoln High is a multitude of realities which cannot all be related in black and white, perhaps in some small way we can preserve the friendships which we all hold so dear. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

There are those without whose efforts this book would not have been possible. The staff would like to thank all of you.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your 1965 Rodis.

TIME

Time is the root of all this earth;
These creatures, who from Time had birth,
Within his bosom at the end
Shall sleep; Time hath not enemy nor friend.

All we in one long caravan
Are journeying since the world began;
We know not whither, but we know
Time guideth at the front, and all must go.

Like as the wind upon the field
Bows every herb, and all must yield,
So we beneath Time's passing breath
Bow each in turn—why tears for birth or death?

Dedication

"A teacher affects eternity; he never knows where his influence stops."

The above quotation is true of many teachers at Midland High School, but the Class of 1965 will be forever grateful to Mrs. Jeannette Needs for her help and support during our high school years.

She has not only taught, but has given of her time and talents to make projects a success. Whether it was chaperoning a dance, decorating for the prom, or giving extra attention to a student, she could be depended upon for assistance. Her warmth and understanding will long be remembered by the members of our class and the classes to follow.

For these reasons, we are proud to dedicate the 1965 Rodis to Mrs. Jeannette Needs.

Special Recognition

Left to Right: Edgar E. Richards, Edward Cilli, William Hokman, William Walters.

Mr. William J. Hokman was presented with a sterling silver tray at the annual School Board banquet in recognition of his 42 years in the field of education.

Mr. Hokman received his B. S. degree from Davis-Elkins College in 1923. In 1927, he received his M. A. from West Virginia University. He came to Lincoln High School in September, 1934. Prior to this, he taught for 11 years in several other communities.

This year, Mr. Hokman will retire from the teaching profession. It is with sincere honesty and regret that our high school says "goodbye" to a truly dedicated teacher and a fine gentleman.

The 1965 RODIS staff extends best wishes to Mr. Hokman and a hearty "Thank You."

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Graduate,

Education can prove to be your greatest asset. Education is unique, for it cannot be purchased, no one can give it to you, but best of all—no one can take it from you.

In your continued search for the fullness of life, it may be well to remember that only through sacrifice, careful planning, and hard work can worthwhile achievement be realized. The best rule to serve as your guide in this pursuit is the "Golden Rule."

We hope your School has served to prepare you to face the tasks ahead, and wish that each of you will eventually realize your fondest ambitions.

May I offer to each member of the Class of 1965 SINCERE CONGRATULATIONS.

Edgar E. Richards
Superintendent

The 1964-65 school year has brought our school and community much favorable recognition throughout the state of Pennsylvania, because of the success of our basketball team. This makes all of us very happy and proud. We, as a school, community, and team have created an image that will have lasting effect until some other one is focused on us that will supplant this one.

This behooves us, then, to concentrate our thoughts and efforts on this image and assure ourselves that the supplanting image is bigger and better than the last one.

In a few short years the present Midland High School students will make up the governing bodies of our town just as has happened with our present community officials. Let us strive, then, to create leaders with vision, dignity, and culture who will create an image of Midland that will make it one of the finest communities in the state of Pennsylvania in which to live and work.

THE VILLAGE SCHOOLMASTER

A man severe he was,
And stern to view;
We knew him well,
And every truant knew.
Yet he was kind,
Or if severe in aught,
The love he bore to learning
was in fault.
And still we gaze,
And still the wonder grew
That one small head could carry all he knew.

Don't bother me, I'm a busy man.

Come up and see me sometime.

My name is Chatty Cathy.

I would rather fight than switch.

Mommy, the CARE package didn't come yet.

That long spear scared me, but that white horse was pretty.

My group had 43% fewer cavities.

Mommy, let me go to Dover please.

Senior Class Officers

In September of 1961, the Class of 1965 entered Lincoln High School as freshmen. We had before us four years of living and learning. Into those years we have crammed much knowledge, many activities, and numerous memories.

As freshmen, we entered a float in the Homecoming Parade. It won no prize, but we were proud of our first organized effort. Our Freshman Class Dance was more successful and was enjoyed by all.

We returned in the fall as sophomores with three years left. "Jack and the Beanstalk," our Homecoming float, won first prize; and we were rewarded for our long hours of decorating. Selling magazines and candy enabled us to finance our social activities for the next two years.

The following year, as juniors, we entered "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" as our third Homecoming float; again, no prize. On the night of May 8, 1964, we played hosts to the seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom. We climaxed our junior year as the band played "Moon River" in the gym, which was decorated like a Southern plantation.

At last, we were seniors! Our last Homecoming float, "Captain Smith and Pocahontas," won first prize. Christmas spirit prevailed at the Senior Party on December 23, 1964. March found us cheering our basketball team on to the state championship. On May 28, 1965, the juniors entertained us with the splendor of "Shangri-La" at the Junior-Senior Prom. June 8, 1965, was the day we received our diplomas and commenced a new life.

Now the future that we dreamed of stretches before us. Our high school years are gone, but they will live in our minds and hearts.

ACTIVITIES

Junior-Senior Prom 1964

After weeks of hard planning and three days of decorating, the Junior-Senior Prom became a reality on the night of May 8, 1964, with the start of the Grand March led by Dan Cekinovich, Junior Class president, George Stoffel, Senior Class president, and their dates.

"Moon River," the theme of the prom, was depicted in a large mural on the center wall. The setting was of an old Southern plantation with a weeping willow tree and a sparkling fountain.

Dancing was to music by the Four Shades. Sophomore girls dressed as maids served refreshments and checked coats.

A post-prom party was held in the United Steelworkers Hall following the prom.

And we were wanted for WHAT?

Now take my basketball team for instance . . .

Boy, have I got a juicy story about her!

Look, mom, no chairs!

So what if you got new shoes, Mary Ellen?

What are we raising HORSES?

Homecoming

October 23, 1964, was the date of the annual Homecoming parade and football game for the alumni and students. Floats entered by school organizations highlighted the parade which preceded the football game between Midland and Hopewell. For the scene depicting Pocahontas and Captain Smith, the Senior Class was awarded the first prize.

At halftime Miss Donna Anusich was crowned Homecoming Queen by Miss Patricia Joseph, 1963 Homecoming attendant.

Members of the Queen's court included Miss Kathryn Hapach and Miss Sharon Snyder, senior attendants; Miss Linda Zahrdt, junior attendant; and Miss Penny Bradshaw, sophomore attendant.

Climaxing the festivities was Midland's victory over Hopewell by a score of 7 to 0.

The L. H. S. band has a notable place in the events of the school. The fine performances on the field and in parade are the result of long hours of intensive training under the direction of Mr. Fleming. The services of the concert band are invaluable in broadening the cultural scope of the curriculum. From the band are derived the three aspects of education—cultural, physical, and academic.

Inspiration for outstanding achievement is afforded by District Band, attended by Milana and Ellen Viakley; and through State Band, an honor awarded to Ellen Viakley.

Jr.-Sr. Prom

On May 28, 1965, the Junior Class was host to the Class of 1965 at the annual Jr.-Sr. Prom. Mary Grace D'Alesio, junior class president, and her escort, Raymond DiCiccio, and Joseph D'Innocenzo, senior class president, and his date, Theresa Steff, led the Grand March over a miniature bridge flanked by cherry blossom trees, into the splendor of "Shangri-La". From the steps of a golden pagoda, the Four Shades provided music for dancing; and an Oriental mural, painted by Tom Wu-china, decorated the center wall. Junior girls checked coats and served refreshments to sixty couples.

At midnight, our visit to "Shangri-La" came to a close; but the fun was continued at the Post-Prom Party in the Steelworkers Hall. Mothers of the upperclassmen prepared and served a buffet supper. Entertainment included a Dixieland singer, a magician, and the Stereos, a recording group. "The Spinner" played records for dancing until 5 A.M. and charms and tie tacks were given to each couple as favors. So ended our wonderful evening; one we will never forget.

Brent scores two against Altoona to aid us on to the State.

Norman passing the ball in one of his famous play-making patterns.

Climaxing the 1965 season, the Midland Leopards achieved their goal of State Championship by defeating rival Steelton by an appalling score of 90 to 61. By completely outclassing their opponents, the Leopards rewrote the record book. Our team scored the highest number of points ever achieved in a Championship game and also captured the individual scoring record.

The Leopards carried with them the finest display of sportsmanship ever to be found in the state, but common to Midland athletes.

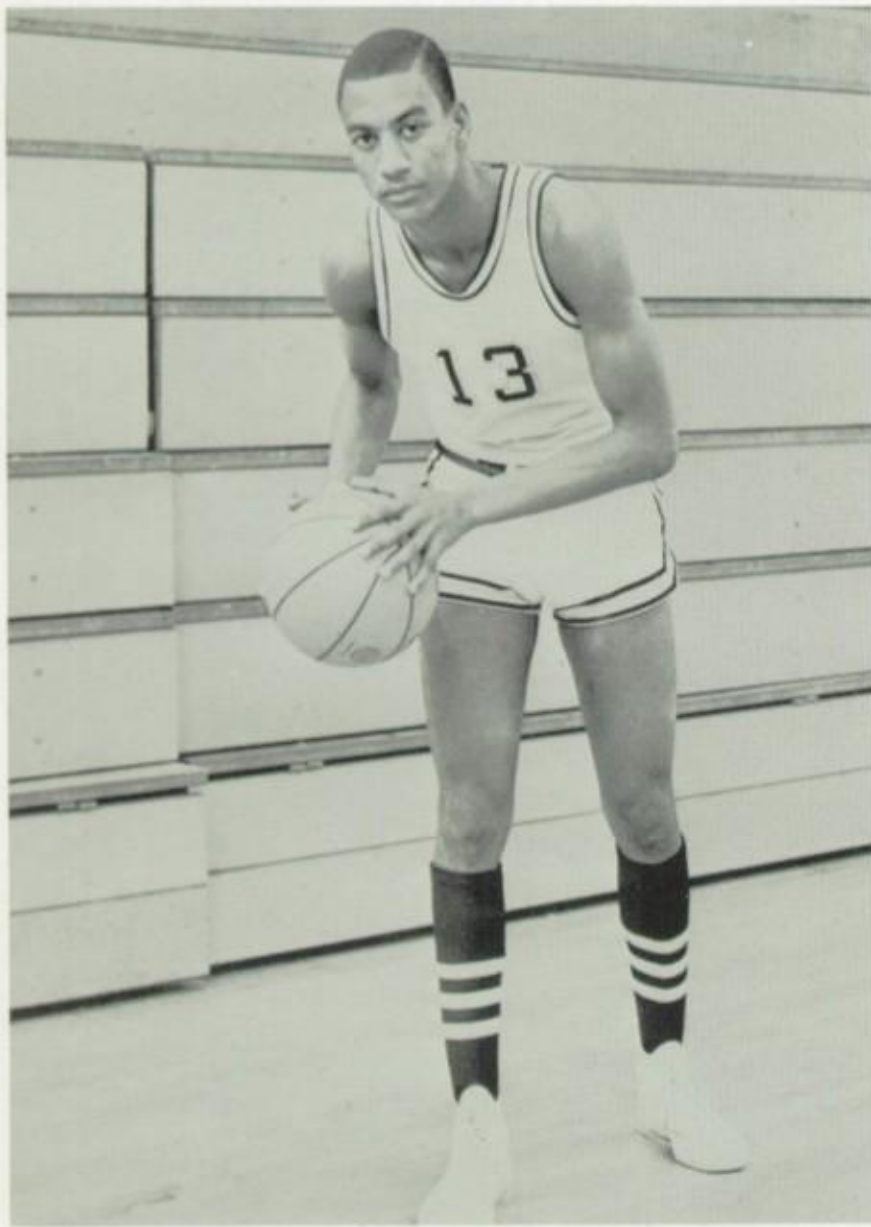

All Star Game

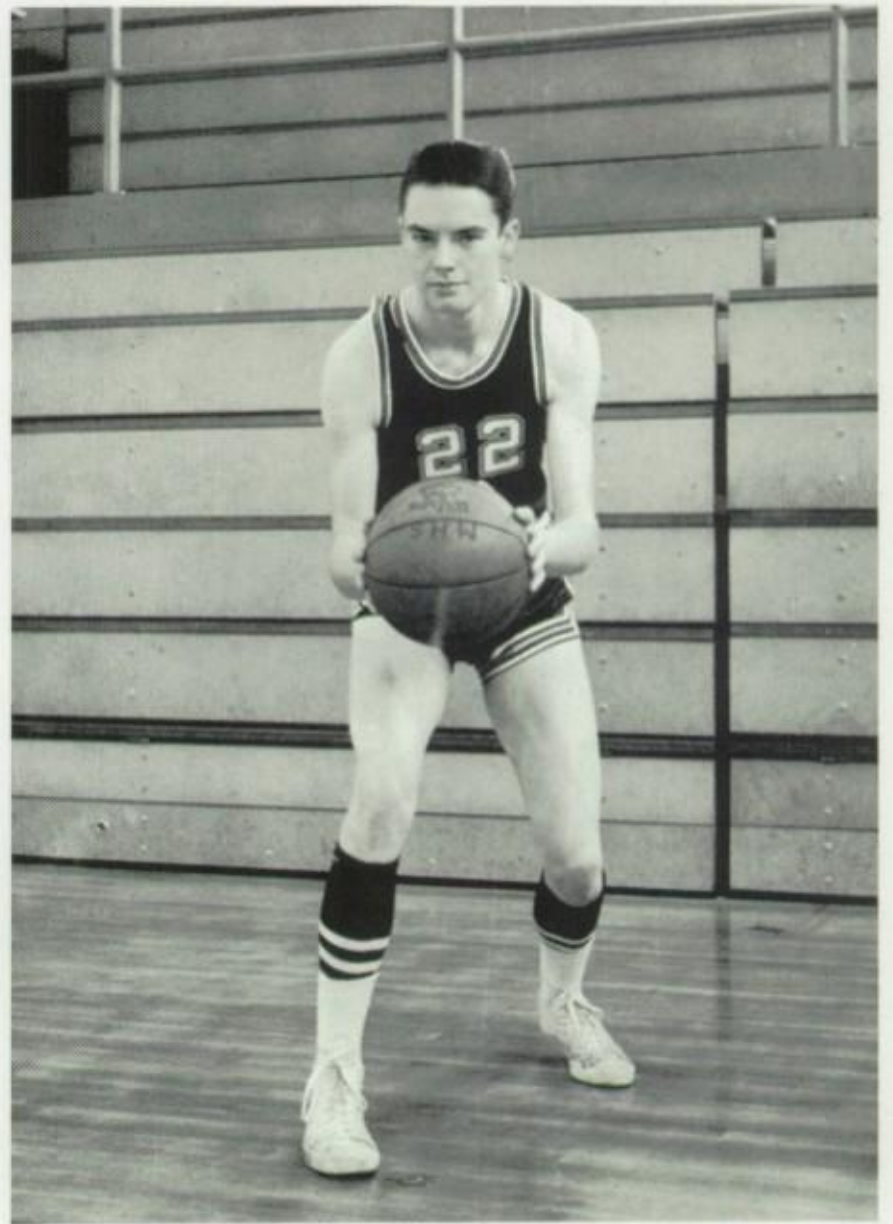

This year Midland was very honored to have Norman Vanlier, Simmie Hill, and Ronnie Brown play on the Pennsylvania all-star team. The Pennsylvania all-stars played against and defeated the national all-stars on March 27, 1965.
